

RICKENBACKER PASSENGER TERMINAL

Columbus, Ohio

Project Description

The Albert M. Higley Co. served as General Contractor for the Columbus Regional Airport Authority's Rickenbacker International Airport Passenger Terminal project. This two-gate terminal accommodates domestic and international aircraft for charter flights. The terminal includes a full Federal Inspection Service (FIS) facility, areas for ticket and baggage handling, as well as passenger amenities and concessions.

Client:

Columbus Regional Airport
Authority

Architect:

Solomon Cordwell Buenz

Size:

43,000 SF

Construction Value:

$12 MM

Completion Date:

November 2003