

CALFEE, HALTER & GRISWOLD LLP

Cleveland, Ohio

Project Description

The Albert M. Higley Co. served as Construction Manager at Risk for the fit-out of the historic Calfee Building in downtown Cleveland. The renovated seven-story building houses 300 employees and features a two-story lobby atrium. The project includes high-density file storage, conference rooms, offices, and other collaborative spaces.

Client:
Calfee, Halter & Griswold LLP

Architect:
Vocon

Size:
111,000 SF

Project Cost:
$12 MM

Project Completion:
January 2012